

IN MEMORIAM

ROBERT COWLING

(January 29, 1891 – December 18, 1953)

Hennepin County Bar Association

Minneapolis, Minnesota

(ca.1954)

ROBERT COWLING

ROBERT COWLING was born at Shamoken, Pennsylvania, on January 29, 1891, where he obtained his early education.

He attended Butler College at Baldwin, Kansas; later he entered Carleton College at Northfield, Minnesota, from which institution he was graduated in 1911. After graduation from Carleton he entered the teaching profession, where he taught at Plainview High School, and other high schools in Minnesota and South Dakota. He later became associated with the Minneapolis School system, becoming Assistant Principal of South High School in Minneapolis, where he was also Supervisor of Athletics. While at South High School he attended the St. Paul College of Law from which college he graduated in 1917, and was admitted to the Bar of Minnesota the same year.

He began the practice of Law at Minneapolis, with offices in the Midland Bank Building, where he continued in active practice until his passing on December 18th, 1953.

Mr. Cowling was a member of the Masonic Fraternity, being a Past Master of Zarthon Lodge of Minneapolis, a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies, and of Zuhrah Temple of the Shrine, a Past President at the Cosmopolitan Club, and of the Executive Toastmasters Club, and a member of the Minneapolis Athletic Club.

He is survived by a brother, Dr. Donald J. Cowling of Minneapolis.

Submitted by Walter P. Wolfe

...●...