RULES OF LIBRARY.

RULE 1.—On every day, except Sunday and National and State holidays, the Library rooms shall be kept open from 8:30 o'clock a. m. until 5:30 o'clock p. m.

On Saturday, they shall be kept open from 8:30 o'clock a. m. until 12:30 o'clock p. m.

They shall also be kept open at all other times, when the Supreme Court or either branch of the Legislature is in actual session.

RULE 2.—The Librarian shall preserve good order and quiet in the Library rooms, and shall keep the same in a neat and orderly condition.

RULE 3.—No book, pamphlet, map, chart or other document shall be taken out of the Library rooms except as follows:

First—By any state officer having an office in the capitol, or by any member of the Legislature during a session thereof, upon the execution of the receipt hereinbefore mentioned, or his written order.

Second—By any attorney or counselor at law of the courts of this state, upon the execution of such receipt, for use only before or by the Federal Circuit Court at St. Paul.

RULE 4.—No book, pamphlet, map, chart, or other document shall be taken from the capitol, except for use by or before the Federal Circuit Court, as aforesaid.

RULE 5.—Every book, pamphlet, map, chart, or other document, taken out of the Library rooms under Rule 3, shall be returned within forty-eight hours after it is taken out, and for failure to return the same within such time, the person in whose name it is taken out shall be subject to a fine of one dollar for each period of twenty-four hours during which he shall wrongfully detain the same.

RULE 6.—Any person taking any book, pamphlet, map, chart or other document from the Library rooms or capitol, in violation of any of these rules, shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars.

RULE 7.—For the purposes of Rules 3, 5 and 6 the Library rooms shall be held to include the Library rooms proper, the Supreme Court room and the rooms in the capitol occupied by the judges of the Supreme Court.

RULE 8.—Any person wilfully and persistently violating any of the foregoing rules may be, by the Librarian, cut off from the privileges of the Library in whole or in part.

PREFACE.

While there is no statute limiting the scope of the Minnesota State Library, it has been the policy of its management to build up a library along the lines of law and legislation. The Library contains at present a rather complete collection of Legal Text-Books and Treatises, Statutes, Session Laws, Digests and Reports of all English-speaking nations, as well as some others; State Documents and Journals, United States Documents and Journals, Legal Periodicals, Histories, Encyclopedias, Dictionaries, Treatises on Political Economy, and some miscellaneous works.

This catalogue does not attempt to cover more than what might be properly termed the Law Section of the Library, and to that extent is as complete and thoroughly worked up as could reasonably be expected.

LAW TERMS.

The law terms were originally timed by the Church festivals from which they take their names.

By Act, 1 William IV, it was provided that in A. D. 1831, and afterwards, the terms shall commence and end as follows:

Hilary Term.....	Jan. 11 to Jan. 31.
Paschal or Eastern Term	April 15 to May 8.
Trinity Term	May 22 to June 12.
Michaelmas Term	Nov. 2 to Nov. 25.

By the Judicature Act of 1873, the terms above mentioned have been abolished as to the administration of justice.

"The division of the legal year into terms shall be abolished, so far as relates to the administration of justice; and there shall no longer be terms applicable to any sitting or business of the High Court of Justice, or of the Court of Appeal, or of any Commissioners to whom any jurisdiction may be assigned under this Act, but in all other cases in which, under the law now existing, the terms into which the legal year is divided, are used as a measure for determining the time at or within which any act is required to be done, the same may continue to be referred to for the same or the like purpose, unless and until provision is otherwise made by any lawful authority."—[Judicature Acts, 1873-75, p. 28.]

THE LAW REPORTS.

The publication of the Law Reports was commenced in 1886, under the direction of an "Incorporated Council of Law Reporting." They were first bound, as indicated in the first table of the law reports, under eleven different titles; but in 1875, the arrangement of the Reports was changed. The cases included under the three titles, "English and Irish Appeal Cases," "Scotch and Divorce Appeal Cases," and "Privy Council Appeals," were thereafter published under the title, "Appeal Cases;" the cases included under the titles "Chancery Appeal Cases" and "Equity Cases" were published under the title, "Chancery Division;" the cases included under the titles, "Crown Cases Reserved" and "Queen's Bench," were published under the title, "Queen's Bench Division;" the cases included under the titles "Admiralty and Ecclesiastical" and "Probate and Divorce" were published under the title, "Probate Division;" "Common Pleas" was continued as "Common Pleas Division," and "Exchequer" as "Exchequer Division." This left the Law Reports in six divisions; and they continued to be so published until 1880, when, after the publication of Vol. 5, "Common Pleas Division," and Vol. 5, "Exchequer Division," these two divisions were merged in the "Queen's Bench Division." There are now but four publications: "Chancery Division," "Queen's Bench Division," "Probate Division" and "Appeal Cases."

LAW GOVERNING STATE LIBRARY.

CHAPTER 272, GENERAL LAWS 1903.

An Act to Codify and Amend the Laws Concerning the State Library and Appropriating Money For Its Care and Maintenance.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. The state library shall consist of the books, pamphlets, maps, charts and documents of every kind now belonging to the same, together with such others as it may acquire by gift, purchase, exchange or otherwise.

Sec. 2. The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint a state librarian at a salary of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per year, who shall hold his office for two years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Before entering upon his duties he shall take the oath of office and give a bond to the state in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) with two sureties to be approved by the governor conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties, the safekeeping and delivery to his successor of all property belonging to the library, and the proper disbursement or payment to his successor of all moneys coming into his hands as librarian. Such oath and bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 3. The librarian is hereby authorized to appoint a clerk to assist in the duties of his office, whose salary shall be $900 per annum and who shall hold office at the pleasure of the librarian. There shall also be appointed by the librarian an assistant librarian whose salary shall be $1,500 per annum. Provided, that the appointment of said assistant before taking effect shall be approved by the supreme court.

Sec. 4. The librarian shall have the custody and charge of all property belonging to the library. He shall under the direction and control of the judges of the supreme court attend to all sales and purchases. He shall furnish the custodian of public documents with a list of states, territories, countries and institutions with which he deems it desirable to carry on exchanges for the benefit of the state library, and it shall be the duty of said custodian of public documents to furnish and forward the volumes requested for such exchange, as provided by law. He shall, as respects himself, obey, and, as respects other persons, enforce such rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the government and conduct of the library and its affairs. He shall, with or without suit, collect in his own name, for the use of the library, such damages as may be sustained by injury to or failure to return any books or other property of the library, as well as all fines imposed by any of the rules or regulations before mentioned.

He shall keep a book in which he shall enter a detailed and chronological account of all exchanges, purchases and sales of the books added to the library during the preceding twelve months, designating which have been added by gift, which by exchange and which by purchase; a list of the books lost during the said twelve months; a statement of the amount collected for the use of the library during the same period for loss of books or injury thereto, and for fines; and also a statement of the amount expended for the library, designating in a general way the purposes for which such expenditures have been made.

Sec. 5. The judges of the supreme court shall exercise a general supervision of the library. They shall have power to adopt all such rules and regulations for the government and conduct of the same and its affairs as they may deem proper, and also rules prescribing penalties and fines for any violation thereof; such rules and regulations shall be posted in conspicuous places in the rooms occupied by the library. Such judges are authorized to direct such purchases of books, pamphlets and documents for the library, and to direct such sales and exchange of books, pamphlets and documents in the library as they may deem best.

Sec. 6. Every officer of the state who shall receive any volume of the laws, journals, reports or other documents of any other state or territory of the United States or any foreign country, or any of the officers thereof for the use of this state shall immediately deliver the same to the state librarian for the state library.

Sec. 7. All moneys received for books sold or for injury to or failure to return books or other property of the library, or for fines shall be expended for the benefit of the library.

Sec. 8. The librarian is hereby authorized under the direction of the judges of the supreme court to expend not to exceed the sum of four thousand dollars ($4,000) annually in the purchase of books for the library; seven hundred dollars ($700) annually in binding and repairing books for the library, and five hundred dollars ($500) annually for contingent purposes.

Sec. 9. For the purposes of this act there shall be and hereby is appropriated the sum of nine thousand six hundred dollars ($9,600) for the fiscal year ending July thirty-first, nineteen hundred and four, and annually thereafter.

Sec. 10. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed. Provided, further, that all standing appropriations heretofore made for any of the purposes herein specified are hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after August first, nineteen hundred and three.

Approved April 18, 1903.
