

Henry W. Volk

March 13, 1873 – March 31, 1958

Henry W. Volk, Minneapolis attorney, passed away March 31, 1958, at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Mr. Volk was born March 13, 1873, at Lake Washington, Blue Earth County, Minnesota. His grandparents had been early pioneers in Southwestern Minnesota and he grew up on a farm in that community.

Mr. Volk was a graduate of the University of Minnesota, Class of 1904, and commenced his legal career at Mankato, Minnesota, where he practiced for seven years, being associated with the firm of H. L. Schmidt and John W. Schmidt. He then moved to Minneapolis, where he was in continuous practice for thirty-nine-years.

Those of us who were privileged to know him always found Mr. Volk to be a man of the highest integrity and honesty. He was the kind of a lawyer who, when he made a commitment, steadfastly carried it out, unless relieved from his obligation. Personally, he was affable and friendly; courteous to all with whom he came in contact, and respectful to his fellow members of the Bar and to the members of the Bench. He exemplified the best in the legal profession.

Mr. Volk was survived by his widow, Hazel B. Volk, 4345 Aldrich Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and two sons and two daughters.

Respectfully submitted,
Russell Smith
